FACULTY BIOS

Satendra Singh

Satendra Singh is Associate Professor of Physiology, Co-coordinator of Medical Education Unit, founder Infinite Ability (disability subgroup of Medical Humanities Group) at University College of Medical Sciences, Delhi. He is also executive member of Delhi Medical Council, Associate editor of Research and Humanities in Medical Education (RHiME) and on the editorial board of Hektoen International.

He is passionate about disability rights and fought discrimination to bring policy reforms forcing Central Government to unlock faculty posts for doctors with disabilities. He has taken judicial activism to make medical institutions in India disabled-friendly. As a firm believer in diversity and inclusion, he believes in breaking not just physical barriers but also attitudinal barriers. He was awarded the 'Universal Design Award 2013' for his disability initiatives.
